About Me

I'm Abrorbek Abdulxamidov, Full-Stack developer extraordinaire, ready to solve complex problems and streamline processes in C++, JavaScript, Node.js, and more .

My academic journey has been enriched by key certifications including Coding Interview Preparations, Agile Project Management, and Advanced React from prestigious platforms .

Learning is the core of my approach, propelling me to hone my skills by completing industry-relevant courses such as Frontend Developer Capstone, HTML CSS in Depth, and Principles of UI/UX . With these crucial acumen, I confidently deliver innovative solutions for complex tasks.

Beyond code, I can communicate fluently in English, intermediate in Russian and basic in German, in addition to my native Uzbek. This attribute allows me to resonate with diverse teams and foster exceptional teamwork.
